THE

OF THE

Unitarian Congregational Churches

FOR

WITH CALENDAR ADAPTED FOR USE THROUGHOUT THE COUNTRY.

ASTRONOMICAL CALCULATIONS BY DR. SAMUEL HART WRIGHT, A.M.

BOSTON:

AMERICAN UNITARIAN ASSOCIATION,

26, Chauncy Street.

PREFACE.

THE YEAR-BOOK is issued, as usual, in place of the January number of the "Monthly Journal." Its purpose is to give the most important statistics of the Unitarian Denomination.

The fresh interest attending the Local Conferences, and various other organizations which are here reported, makes such a compendium more than ever desirable; and it is hoped that it may be found valuable, to be kept for permanent use. In order to make it more convenient, there have been added various items of practical information, and the Calendar has been adapted to all parts of the country.

When compared with the Year-Book for 1868, and others preceding, it will be noticed that certain important organizations have been here omitted. They are societies for philanthropic or charitable or religious purposes, which, while originally started, and still chiefly maintained, by Unitarians, have yet, in accordance with the broad spirit characteristic of our denomination, been put upon an unsectarian basis, and have others besides Unitarians among their officers. These have been properly enough enumerated hitherto in our yearly record, and many of them are among the organizations most interesting to our people. We should have no hesitation in continuing to enumerate them, but they have multiplied so fast, that it has been found impossible to insert all (as we should desire to do, if we mentioned any of this class), without increasing too much the size of our publication. Thus, what seems at first sight a sign of diminished activity, is really the reverse.

We send with this our greeting to the Churches, and to the friends of the Unitarian cause; and our congratulations on the good auspices with which we enter upon another year.

ECLIPSES FOR THE YEAR 1869.

There will be four eclipses this year, two of the Sun, and two of the Moon:—

I.—A partial eclipse of the Moon, Jan. 27, in the evening; visible. Size, 5½ digits on the northern limb. In California and Oregon, the Moon will rise eclipsed. For the times of the phases of the eclipse, see the following table.

II.—An annular eclipse of the Sun, Feb. 11. Invisible in North America; but visible in the southern part of South America, and in South Africa.

IV.—A total eclipse of the Sun, Aug. 7 (Saturday), in the afternoon. Visible as such in part of Iowa, Illinois, Kentucky, West Virginia, and North Carolina. The eclipse will be total, at noon, in Alaska, lat. 61° 46.9′ north, long. 68° 4.6′ west of Washington. The line of central and total eclipse from thence runs south-easterly, touching the coast near Sitka; thence passes into British America, and enters the United States near the origin of Milk river, long. 30° W. From thence it passes through the south-west corner of Minnesota, crosses the Mississippi river near Burlington, Iowa, and proceeds through Illinois just north of Springfield, and crosses the Ohio river near Louisville. It then runs through Kentucky and North Carolina, passing just south of Raleigh, and entering the Atlantic near Newbern and Beaufort, North Carolina. North of this line the eclipse will be partial, the southern limb being eclipsed; and south of the line it will also be partial, the northern limb being eclipsed. See the following table for the times of its phases:—

List of Ministers, with their Residences.

Those marked † are not settled, and the mark has been put against the name of every one who is not actually in charge of a parish, over which he has been installed. A large proportion of these have stated and permanent occupation, or else have retired, on account of age or for other reasons, from the duties of the profession. So far as can be ascertained, only twenty-one of those upon this list, who count themselves still in the active ministry and available for settlement, are without some stated employment.

This Convention was held in New York, on the 5th and 6th of April, 1865, and organized the National Conference.

The second meeting of the Conference was held Oct. 10 and 11, 1866, in Syracuse, N.Y.; and the third, Oct. 7, 8, and 9, 1868, in the city of New York.

CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS.

CONSTITUTION.

Preamble. — Whereas the great opportunities and demands for Christian labor and consecration, at this time, increase our sense of the obligations of all disciples of the Lord Jesus Christ to prove their faith by self-denial, and by the devotion of their lives and possessions to the service of God and the building-up of the kingdom of his Son, —

Article I. — Therefore the Christian Churches of the Unitarian faith, here assembled, unite themselves in a common body, to be known as the National Conference of Unitarian and other Christian Churches, to the end of energizing and stimulating the denomination with which they are connected to the largest exertions in the cause of Christian faith and work.

Art. II. — This National Conference shall be composed of such delegates, elected once in two years, not to exceed three from any church, including its minister, who shall officially be one, as any of our churches may accredit to it by a certificate of their appointment.

Art. III. — The American Unitarian Association, the Western Conference, and such other theological, academic, or humane organizations in our body as the Conference may see fit to invite, shall be entitled to representation by not more than three delegates each.

ART. IV. — The Conference shall meet, biennially, at such time and place as it may designate at its successive biennial sessions.

ART. V. — Its officers shall consist of a President; six Vice-Presidents; three Secretaries, — a Statistical, a Recording, and a Corresponding Secretary; a Treasurer; and a Council of ten, — half ministers and half laymen, — who shall be elected at each meeting, to hold their offices for two years, and until their successors are appointed.

ART. VI. — The Council shall have charge, during the intervals of the biennial sessions, of all business having reference to the interests of the Conference, and intrusted to it by that body, which is hereby declared a purely advisory one.

ART. VII. — The National Conference, until further advised by its experience, adopts the existing organizations of the Unitarian body as the instruments of its power, and confines itself to recommending them to such undertakings and methods as it judges to be in the heart of the Unitarian denomination.

ART. VIII. — This Constitution may be amended, at any regular meeting of the Conference, by a vote of not less than two-thirds of the delegates accredited thereto.

ART. IX. — To secure the largest unity of the spirit and the widest practical co-operation, it is hereby understood that all declarations of this Conference, including the Preamble and Constitution, are expressions only of its majority, committing in no degree those who object to them, and dependent wholly for their effect upon the consent they command on their own merits from the churches here represented or belonging within the circle of our fellowship.

BY-LAWS.

1. Three months at least before the time fixed by the National Conference for its biennial meeting, the Council shall issue a circular letter of call to the churches and organizations in its fellowship, accompanying it with a form of certificate, the production of which shall be the proof of membership of the Conference until others are elected, unless otherwise ordered by the Conference.

2. The Recording Secretary shall keep a full report of the proceedings of the body, which shall be published at the expense of the Conference, and a copy sent to every delegate.

3. The Council, at the conclusion of each Conference, shall issue an address to the churches and organizations in our body, whether members of this Conference or not, to be published with the proceedings of the Conference, containing such advice and encouragement as it may deem appropriate; but especially communicating to the churches and organizations the recommendations of the Conference in regard to plans and methods of work, the amount of money required for the uses of the year, the special objects to which they would advise its appropriation, with such suggestions, as to a just apportionment of the burden, as they may judge expedient and becoming.

4. The Council shall have it for its duty to keep itself accurately informed of the plans and operations of the various organizations in our body, and of the state of the individual churches; inviting correspondence, and soliciting reports, to be sent in one month before the biennial meeting, in which the general condition of the parish, its Sunday-school, charities, and general working, may be set forth, to the end that the Conference may know what the wants and the wishes of the churches are, somewhat more particularly than it is possible to learn in the necessary hurry of the biennial meeting.

5. The Corresponding Secretary of the National Conference shall be the person to whom all letters and communications shall be addressed; and he shall be, ex-officio, a member of the Council, and constitute its Secretary.

6. The list of delegates, churches, and organizations represented in each Conference shall be part of the Biennial Report. The archives of the Conference shall be in the keeping of the Recording Secretary, subject to inspection and temporary possession by the Council.

7. A collection shall be taken up among the delegates at each Conference, to which any others may contribute, to defray the incidental expenses of the Conference, — such as printing the Report, &c.

8. Each church in this Conference is recommended to defray the expenses of its delegates.

Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge, Piety, and Charity.

BOSTON, MASS.

Incorporated May 29, 1805.

This Society, from its beginning, secured the sympathies and services of the leading ministers and laymen of our denomination. Considerable sums were in this way obtained, as also by private donations and annual assessments.

Of late years, the income of its invested funds has been devoted to the libraries of the Cambridge and Meadville Theological Schools, and the gratuitous distribution of able theological works to clergymen, and to the publication of popular tracts.

Organized March 3, 1868.

The objects of the Union are as follows: —

I. To maintain free, popular religious meetings, untrammelled by sectarian ties or obligations.

II. In connection with these, to establish such free meetings for religious inquiry and moral improvement, together with such means of intellectual cultivation, as may be found practicable.

III. To extend a cordial welcome to strangers coming to the city, and to provide a place which shall be to them as a home, where may be found amusement and recreation for leisure hours, sympathy and aid in time of trouble, and all the influences of social companionship and home life which can help to destroy the power of the allurements to vice with which city life abounds.

IV. To engage in such active benevolent and charitable work as may be needed; to visit those who are sick and in prison; to aid those who are in want, and especially to help those whom a word of kindness and sympathy at the right time may save from lives of degradation and sin.

With these objects in view, the Union has fitted up, in a neat and attractive manner, the rooms on the corner of Broad and Eddy Streets, as a Library and Reading-room, and has also provided, at the same place, a large and pleasant room, supplied with the means for various social games. PUBLICATIONS

26, Chauncy Street, Boston, Mass.

The aim of the Association being to give to its publications a wide circulation, they are put at prices which make them, in almost every instance, at least a third lower than those of ordinary publishers.

A discount of twenty-five per cent from retail prices is allowed to clergymen of every denomination, and liberal terms are made with the trade and all others who buy to sell again.

Any book in the following list will be sent FREE, on receipt of the price. Address "American Unitarian Association, Boston, Mass."

ALTAR AT HOME. A Collection of Prayers for Private and Social Use, written by Eminent Ministers in and near Boston. With appropriate Selections from Scripture, Collects, and Litanies. 16mo, 360 pp. 80 cts.

"From a careful perusal, we have no hesitation in saying that it is a book of uncommon excellence, well adapted to multiply the blessings of private and domestic worship, and ought to find a place in every family." — Christian Inquirer.

"They are all written with simplicity and beauty, and some of them are marked by a high degree of solemnity and fervor." — Puritan Recorder.

ALTAR AT HOME. Second Series. Containing about one hundred and fifty Prayers, by thirty Clergymen; with appropriate Selections from the Scriptures and the best devotional writers. 16mo, 348 pp. 80 cts.

"We have never seen a manual which seems to us, on the whole, so well adapted to the object for which it has been prepared." — Christian Examiner.

ATHANASIA; or, Foregleams of Immortality. By Rev. Edmund H. Sears. 16mo, 350 pp. 80 cts.; morocco, $1.50.

In this work the subjects of death and the future life are fully considered; and cheering views are presented, which "turn the shadow of death into the morning."

"'Athanasia' will stand as a lovely classic in sacred literature, and a beautiful inspiration of pure devotional feeling. . . . The best test of merit of a book is when we feel we have been made better by reading it; and while 'Athanasia' widens the field of intellectual vision, and makes solid and substantial the bridge from time to eternity, it quickens the conscience in its sense of duty, and softens the heart with a tender and more celestial love. — Christian Inquirer.

"The other productions of Mr. Sears have been marked by the loftiest moral beauty, in the purest and most elegant diction; but this is his chef-d'œuvre in many respects. . . . On the whole, we know no religious work of the age adapted to make a deeper, more practical, and more gladdening impression on thoughtful and lofty minds." — Christian Register.

BEGINNING AND GROWTH OF THE CHRISTIAN LIFE; or, The Sunday-school Teacher. 16mo. 190 pp. 60 cts.

"We earnestly commend the book to pastors, teachers, and parents. . . . Its errand must be a blessed one." — Christian Examiner.

"It is a book for parents to give their children just leaving home, or staying at home; for ministers to put into the hands of their parishioners; for young persons to obtain, who are seeking to live the true life 'hid with Christ in God,' and for every Sunday-school teacher to take as a chart and an inspiration." — Religious Monthly.

CHRISTIAN CONSOLATIONS. Sermons designed to furnish Comfort and Strength to the Afflicted. By Rev. A. P. Peabody, D.D. 16mo. 438 pp. $1.00.

"Not less chaste and scholarly in style, not less mature and elevating in thought, than those of the deceased pastor of King's Chapel. . . . They touch but little upon didactic theology, and are mainly practical and hortatory; but they do strike their roots into Gethsemane and Calvary, and draw thence their richest consolations." — Independent.

"They exhibit original thought, a high comprehension of religious duty and life, and extraordinary power to control the attention. The style is eminently pure, and, in many respects, the discourses deserve to be considered model sermons." — Zion's Herald.

This work discusses, in the bold and clear style of its author, the whole subject of prayer; the importance of it, doctrine of Jesus and the Apostles concerning it; objections to it; preparations for it; and its methods, motives, and results.

"We can hardly praise this book too highly. It fully meets the questions which it attempts to discuss. We know of no writer who addresses the religious world from precisely such a stand-point as Mr. Clarke. He is eminently free from all sectarian limitations, and therefore speaks to a much larger audience than most writers upon religious or theological questions. He powerfully appeals to the reason, while he continually addresses the spiritual nature." — Salem Gazette.

"This is the work of a thoughtful, serious man, on a topic of great practical importance. . . . It contains much that richly deserves the serious consideration of all readers." — Traveller.

The Association, having purchased the remainder of the edition of this excellent work, offers it at a reduction of twenty-five per cent from the former price.

"We welcome this book as a rich contribution to our religious literature. The sermons themselves — clear, direct, fresh, and varied — bring religious thought and motive, through the pure medium of one who has felt its power, without one trace of either morbid sentiment or rebellious will. It is the clear judgment of one who knows the doctrine because he does the Father's will. Without being controversial, the discourses are all clearly and peculiarly Unitarian." — Monthly Journal.

COMMON PRAYER FOR CHRISTIAN WORSHIP. In ten Services for Morning and Evening, with Special Collects, Prayers, and Occasional Services. Edited by Dr. Sadler and Rev. James Martineau. 12mo, 300 pp. Cloth, $1.25; morocco, $1.50.

"The book throughout is marked by the superior taste and scholarly ability of Mr. Martineau." — Christian Ambassador.

"While it is beautifully adapted to use in public worship, it will render valuable aid in domestic and private worship." — Trumpet.

COMMUNION THOUGHTS. By Rev. S. G. Bulfinch, D.D. 16mo, 204 pp. Bevelled boards, red edges, 75 cts.

"We especially commend it to all those who are desirous of becoming religious professors, but hesitating about their fitness. . . . No one can read it without becoming better." — Taunton Whig.

DISCIPLINE OF SORROW. By Rev. William G. Eliot, D.D. 16mo, 106 pp. Bevelled boards, red edges, 50 cts.

Hundreds of bereaved families have expressed their grateful sense of the value of these soothing and hopeful words.

"To all in affliction we commend the angel-ministries of this fair volume." — Boston Evening Transcript.

This Commentary has been prepared by one of our most accomplished biblical scholars, as the first of a series which, it is believed, will meet the very wide want of a commentary, in our own language, which shall give the latest results of critical investigation in a spirit at once liberal and devout.

"The author has done his work well, and the book will prove a most interesting and useful help to students of the New Testament." — Boston Advertiser.

"The 'Notes' evince a thorough knowledge of the Scriptures, an extensive acquaintance with ancient and modern commentators, and strong native powers of analysis." — Saturday-Evening Gazette.

"It is not merely a collection of brief notes explanatory of words and facts in the Common Version, but to these are added succinct yet luminous essays on the most difficult and questioned points in the history and teachings of Christ. . . . We need say nothing of his (the author's) well-known clear logic and beautiful perspicuity of style, his moral glow, his spiritual insight, his nice perception, and quick sympathy with all the peculiar loveliness of the character of Jesus. He understands because he loves; and, loving, sees much that escapes the cold eye of merely intellectual criticism." — Christian Register.

Over sixteen thousand copies of this book have been circulated. Probably no work of the kind presents the great leading doctrines of Christianity, as understood by Unitarians, in a clearer style, and in a more kindly and conciliating temper.

EARLY PIETY; or, Recollections of Harriet B——. 16mo. 25 cts.

The life of a gifted and devout Sunday-school pupil is here sketched in a form peculiarly attractive to the young, and offering them a high and quickening example.

EARLY RELIGIOUS EDUCATION. Considered as a Divinely appointed Way to the Regenerate Life. By Rev. William G. Eliot, D.D. 16mo, 128 pp. 50 cts.

"A very clear and sensible plea for early religious education, as the best means for working the needed change in the heart." — Christian Examiner.

"Characterized by sound and discriminating good sense, and warmed and vitalized by a truthful, fervent, and rational faith in Christ." — Boston Atlas.

EVIDENCES OF THE GENUINENESS OF THE GOSPELS. By Andrews Norton. Abridged edition. 12mo, 608 pp. $1.50.

"The American Unitarian Association have issued an abridged edition of Norton's 'Evidences of the Genuineness of the Gospels,' containing in the main the original work, such portions only being omitted as were considered unessential to the force of its main argument. These omissions are of paragraphs addressed rather to the scholar than the general reader, and a list of the principal ones is given. The argument has always been held to be a valuable one by men of all schools who hold to the Bible, and is divided into three parts: (1) proof that the Gospels remain essentially the same as when originally composed; (2) direct historical evidence that they have been ascribed to their true authors; (3) the evidence of their genuineness afforded by the early heretics. In many respects, this is one of the best treatises in our language on this topic, and this edition is practically better for use than the larger one." — Congregationalist (Orthodox), Boston.

"If the experiment of putting this work before the public in this cheaper and more compact form shall result in an increase of its circulation, we shall heartily rejoice. We do not believe that the English language contains another so lucid and masterly exposition of the question of the genuineness of the Gospels, as this of Andrews Norton. The argument is largely original and thoroughly exhaustive. The text, but especially the notes, exhibit a range of learning and an acquaintance with all the bearings of the subject, before which the stoutest sceptic must pause in respectful admiration, if he cannot yield his conviction." — Universalist, Boston.

"This is a very timely book, and the Association deserve the thanks of every friend of historical Christianity for putting this powerful and conclusive argument of a profound and accurate scholar in such a form as to reach the people. The volume is sold for the very small price of one dollar and a half, and we hope it will have a very wide circulation." — Christian Register, Boston.

"The present volume is suited to general readers, and its marked ability commends it to all Bible students." — Journal, Boston.

"We are glad that a work of so much importance has been published in a cheap form." — Evening Transcript, Boston.

FORMATION OF THE CHRISTIAN CHARACTER. Addressed to those who are seeking to lead a religious Life; and PROGRESS OF THE CHRISTIAN LIFE: being a Sequel to the "Formation of the Christian Character." By HENRY WARE, Jr. 16mo. 50 cts.

These works, formerly published as two books, are now bound together in a neat volume of 270 pages, and sold at a price which should secure for them the wide circulation to which their great worth entitles them.

FORREST MILLS: A PEEP AT CHILD-LIFE FROM WITHIN. By LOUISE M. THURSTON. 16mo, 221 pp. 80 cts. (See Prize Story Books.)

GRAINS OF GOLD. Selections from the Writings of Rev. C. A. BARTOL, D.D. 32mo, 191 pp. Bevelled boards, red edges. 60 cts.

"This little book consists of brief sentences taken from the published sermons of Rev. Cyrus A. Bartol, pastor of the West Church, Boston. No one can have read those sermons without admiring the poetical beauty of their illustrations, and the richness of wisdom and spiritual insight of many of their paragraphs. Some of these gems are here brought together." — Quarterly Journal.

HALF-CENTURY OF THE UNITARIAN CONTROVERSY, with particular reference to its Origin, its Course, and its Prominent Subjects among the Congregationalists of Massachusetts. By Rev. GEORGE E. ELLIS, D.D. 8vo. 536 pp. $1.50.

"We have before, in another connection, alluded to this remarkable book, so distinguished for its thoroughness of research and candor of tone, and destined, as no doubt it is, to take a high and trusted place among the best contributions to our ecclesiastical history. A new generation has come upon the stage of action since the Unitarian controversy abated from its former warmth; and many need just such a book as this in order to understand the historical position of religious parties, on what points these have divided, and what results have been reached. We believe Dr. Ellis to be a safe guide to an inquiring mind. Of course his book has called forth comments and protests; but we have not seen evidence that he has been convicted of any misstatements, while all have borne witness to the general fairness of his temper." — Quarterly Journal.

The work contains between one and two hundred gems of sacred poetry, culled from all the best writers in the English language, by one who has himself added some of the choicest contributions to this department of letters.

"It is a beautiful collection of devotional poetry, made with good judgment and taste. It will find a place in every devotional library, and give comfort and satisfaction to many hearts." — Boston Daily Advertiser.

A discount of ten per cent from the above prices made to societies introducing the books, and to clergymen.

This book discusses "the prominent points at issue between the Unitarian and Calvinistic portion of the Christian Church." The name of the author will be sufficient assurance that the topics of which he treats are presented with ability and clearness.

LECTURES TO YOUNG MEN. By Rev. William G. Eliot, D.D. 16mo, 190 pp. 60 cts.

Contents. — An Appeal; Self-Education; Leisure Time; Transgression; The Ways of Wisdom; Religion.

"The practical wisdom, the habits of close observation, and the sincere piety of Dr. Eliot, united with what we must consider an essential element in his success, — his sympathy with the young, — have fitted him to discharge his task successfully." — Christian Examiner.

"A book that every young man throughout the nation should read, and make the constant companion of his leisure hours." — Detroit Tribune.

This volume has been reprinted at the request of the Ladies' Commission on Sunday-school Books, after an interval of more than twenty years since the last (the fifth) edition was issued, during most of which period it has been out of print.

"The Gospel story is told so as to give it new interest, by observing the order of events, and introducing the necessary connecting explanations. After reading Mr. Ware's narrative, the story, as related by the Evangelists, will gain a fresh meaning. It is not a commentary, and yet it will be found useful as such in the Sunday school and at home." — Evening Transcript, Boston.

"Most heartily do we commend their [the Ladies' Commission] judgment, in deciding to have this volume republished, as we most heartily commend the book itself. It is full of the spirit, principles, and promises of Christ's holy religion." — Gospel Banner (Universalist), Augusta, Me.

This work has been republished by request of the Ladies' Commission.

"Few purer and better writers than Ware and Greenwood have lived in New England, and the reproduction of their works will be always welcomed by those who value what is elevated alike in religion, in morals, and in taste." — Suffolk-County Journal, Boston.

"The selection is creditable to the good judgment of the ladies; and it matters little what may be the sectarian name of the Association which puts into circulation works so admirable in their design and execution." — Salem Gazette.

MEMOIR OF CHANNING. A new edition of this work has been issued by the Association; and, in accordance with its custom, and through the generosity of Rev. W. H. Channing (the owner of the stereotype plates, who makes no charge for their use), is sold at the very low price of $2.50. 3 vols. 12mo. 1,400 pp., with two portraits.

"A book like this is a great gift to the world. It is a light on the pathway of every-day life." — Buffalo Commercial.

"A work of exceeding interest." — Lowell Courier.

"It is full of interest, and no one can fail to be benefited by reading the life of one whose name was a proverb for purity of character." — Ploughman.

MEMOIRS OF THE REV. NOAH WORCESTER, D.D. By Rev. HENRY WARE, Jr., D.D. With a Preface, Notes, and Concluding Chapter by SAMUEL WORCESTER. 12mo, 167 pp. 50 cts.

NEW DISCUSSION OF THE TRINITY. 16mo, 252 pp. 60 cents.

This is, perhaps, the most condensed and forcible summary of the whole doctrine of the Trinity ever published. It contains elaborate articles by Rev. F. H. HEDGE, D.D., Rev. E. H. SEARS, Rev. J. F. CLARKE, D.D., Rev. R. P. STEBBINS, D.D., and Mr. EZRA ABBOT, with Sermons by Rev. T. S. KING, and Rev. ORVILLE DEWEY, D.D.

This book is not designed, as may be inferred from its title, for the Orthodox alone, but should be read by every Unitarian who wishes to be a truly liberal and catholic Christian. Unitarians who desire to make converts to their faith can in no way effect their purpose better than by circulating among their candid Orthodox friends this admirable work.

"We advise our people, and especially our ministers, to read this book. It is well written and able. It will be to them a rich source of instruction. It is the fairest book, from a Unitarian position, that we have seen for a long time, though abundantly open to criticism." — Congregationalist (Orthodox), Boston.

"The author, a prominent Unitarian clergyman of this city, reviews, in this work, the doctrines of the Orthodox Church, and severally treats of them from the standpoint of James Freeman Clarke; for he makes no pretension that the opinions put forth are other than his own private judgment. It is well worth careful perusal." — Zion's Herald (Methodist), Boston.

"We have read it with pleasure, even where its conclusions or processes do not fully commend themselves to our mind. Dr. Clarke writes with great clearness and beauty and force. His criticisms are acute, his spirit conciliatory, his method fair, his expressions of faith definite. . . . The volume is full of matter; and we commend it to every thoughtful reader, not that its conclusions may be accepted, but that its matter may be carefully weighed." — Christian Ambassador (Universalist), New York.

"Admirable in intention, kind in temper, candid in spirit, earnest in purpose, this volume occupies a place in theological literature which ought to have been filled before, but which, until now, has remained empty." — The Nation, New York.

"These are but a few prominent points of the book, which discusses all the doctrines elaborately, and in a manner to interest and instruct, not only students of theology, but all intelligent Christians." — Republican, Springfield, Mass.

PRIZE STORY-BOOKS, — WATCHWORDS FOR LITTLE SOLDIERS, LITTLE SPLENDID'S VACATION, and FORREST MILLS.

Having been purchased by the American Unitarian Association, they are sold (to make them conform to the low scale of prices adopted for the Association's publications) at 80 cents each, instead of $1.00 as before.

These books combine, in a high degree, pure sentiment with pleasing incidents and descriptions, and are sure to entertain and improve the juvenile reader.

"The testimony of a faithful life, and the witness of a triumphant death, belong to the Church universal. They are of no private ownership, but are the property of truth, the inheritance of the great family of God, not to be selfishly hidden therefrom, if their commemoration can inspire with courage a fainting spirit, or animate one feeble heart to strive more patiently for the victory and the crown of faith. Such considerations have lead me to prepare a simple and truthful memorial of one of the most consistent and complete Christians whom it has been privilege to know." — Extract from Chapter I.

This work describes the necessity and progress of the great transformation which the gospel is designed to make in the individual life, and is written in a style of exceeding freshness and beauty.

"We attempt no analysis of the book; nor shall we enter upon any criticism of its contents. We wish every one of our readers to purchase and read the book itself. If they are not satisfied that their money is well spent, and their time well devoted, and their hearts made better, and their minds enlightened, then we will not recommend another book for the perusal of the public: our taste and theirs are too widely separated to admit of such a service." — Christian Inquirer.

"This treatise was written at the request of the American Unitarian Association, and published under their auspices, wherefore it is hardly to be expected that all readers will concur in every proposition advanced; still, a careful study of it, taking it for 'all in all,' must greatly assist such persons as are anxiously and honestly searching for truth. It is, in our opinion, one of the most profound essays on the subject that has issued from the press for some years." — Quebec Mercury.

RE-STATEMENTS OF CHRISTIAN DOCTRINE. In Twenty-five Sermons. By Rev. Henry W. Bellows, D.D., Minister of All-Souls' Church, New York. 12mo, 434 pp. $1.00.

"The eight years that have passed since the first edition appeared have in no way impaired its freshness and interest. Indeed, some of the subjects treated have, during that interval, been so prominently discussed, that the book may almost be declared to be more timely than when it first appeared.

"Without claiming to be controversial, the volume is a distinct affirmation of the positive doctrines of Unitarianism; and, where it falls in his way, the author clearly illustrates the grounds of his dissent from the more popular theology. But these are, at the same time, truly sermons, and not doctrinal lectures. They are designed to edify as well as to instruct; and there is not one of them that does not leave a deep religious impression." — Monthly Journal.

This work contains the clearest and fullest statements Dr. Channing gave of his views concerning Theology and Religion, the subjects treated of being as follows: Christianity a Rational Religion; Evidences of Revealed Religion; Evidences of Christianity; Unitarian Christianity; Unitarian Christianity most Favorable to Piety; Objections to Unitarian Christianity Considered; Moral Argument against Calvinism; Letter on Catholicism; Letter on Creeds; The Church; Self-Culture; Imitableness of Christ's Character.

SERMONS FOR CHILDREN. By Rev. ANDREW P. PEABODY, D.D. 16mo, bevelled boards. 60 cents.

This book contains Four Sermons, with the following subjects: How to be Religious; Use and Abuse of the Tongue; False Shame; Memory.

"The sermons were first preached in Portsmouth, N.H.; and many there will remember the earnestness with which they were heard, and the profound impression which they made. We cannot doubt that they will be eagerly welcomed by parents, and by all who are interested in the religious welfare of the young. They are printed in an attractive form, and the book is admirably suited for a gift-book to the young." — Monthly Journal.

This little volume, which has long been out of print, is republished at the request of the Ladies' Commmission on Sunday-school Books. Many parents, in search of some helpful reading for their children, will recognize it as one of the pleasant instructors of their own early years.

"The other volumes are the late Dr. Greenwood's 'Lives of the Apostles,' and 'Sermons for Children;' both charming in style, and attractive for the spirit and fine taste with which the memoirs of the early disciples are presented, and the highest of truths and the most important virtues addressed and commended to the young. The Association has done well to bring these pleasant, religious books into print again; and it has done it in a form that cannot fail to insure for them a renewed circulation and popularity." — Evening Transcript, Boston.

SEVEN STORMY SUNDAYS. 16mo, 372 pp. $1.00.

A series of services (including seven sermons never before published) arranged for home or social use.

"The book is full of beauties of the highest order, and does great credit to the taste of the compiler." — London Inquirer.

SOCIAL HYMNS AND TUNES, for the Conference and Prayer Meeting, and the Home. With Services and Prayers.

The work contains about 120 tunes and chants, and 325 hymns. Square 16mo, 155 pp. $6.00 a dozen; single copies, 60 cts.

"We are glad to see that the new Hymn and Tune Book, published by the American Unitarian Association, has met with such general favor as to warrant the preparation of a cheap abridgment for use in social meetings and conferences. The volume, though compact, contains many of the favorite hymns and tunes, with a few additional pieces, and is admirably adapted for its special use. The Association has done a good work in the preparation of both books; and we shall look with interest for the publication of the similar volume for Sunday schools, which has been so long promised." — Christian Register.

STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR NOT BELIEVING THE DOCTRINES OF TRINITARIANS CONCERNING THE NATURE OF GOD AND THE PERSON OF CHRIST. By Prof. ANDREWS NORTON. With a Memoir of the Author, by Rev. WILLIAM NEWELL, D.D., of Cambridge. 12mo, 550 pp. $1.25.

This is the fullest, the ablest, and most conclusive argument that has ever been published on this subject.

"Mr. Norton writes for intelligent men: for those who do not shrink from examination and patient thought; who are not disgusted at being required to exercise a manly independence; who seek for truth for truth's sake, and are willing to pay the price of its attainment. Such will find, in the work before us, ample materials for study and reflection." — Christian Examiner.

STUDIES OF CHRISTIANITY; or, Timely Thoughts for Religious Thinkers. By Rev. JAMES MARTINEAU. Edited by Rev. WILLIAM R. ALGER. 12mo, 544 pp. $1.25.

One of the most accomplished writers in this country, in a review of this work, says: —

"Take this volume for all in all, it is the product of a bold, independent, and original mind; from the beginning to the end it throbs with life, is suggestive in almost every sentence; opens wide visions of thought on questions that concern the sublimest interests of the soul, and deals with them in a manner worthy of their sublimity; breathes everywhere the humanity of a strong yet gentle nature; arouses the heart to the brave, the generous, the honorable, the heroic; repels with righteous scorn the mean, the maudlin, the effeminate, every thing in idea or conduct that is spurious or unmanly; is written in a style of musical variety, as well as soaring and expansive grandeur, and which only errs, when it does err, in an excess of beauty; contains more passages of striking, profound, and inspiring eloquence, than we have ever before met with in the same number of pages."

SUNDAY-SCHOOL LITURGY. Prepared under the supervision of the Sunday-School Society. 16mo, cloth, boards. $6.00 a dozen; single copies, 60 cents.

THEOLOGICAL ESSAYS FROM VARIOUS AUTHORS. With an Introduction by Rev. GEORGE R. NOYES, D.D. 12mo, 558 pp. $1.25.

"A collection of thoughtful and carefully prepared papers on some of the leading topics of theological difference, from such men as Stanley and Jowett, Tholuck and Powell, Guizot, Newcome, Rowland Williams, Edward Harwood, and Thomas Brown, could not fail to possess both an immediate interest and a permanent value. Such is the character of the volume before us." — Religious Magazine.

"We have waited to read these different discussions on Inspiration, Death of Christ, The Atonement, St. Paul, Resurrection, &c., that we might speak intelligently. So valuable a collection, so interesting, so advanced in thought, so liberal in tone, has never been made before. Chiefly from eminent writers of the Episcopal Church, it is in advance some time of the Unitarian opinion here: yet the writers still hold their high places of instruction and power in the mother country. What is now offered for about a dollar could not, we suppose, be obtained in the bulky volumes of Jowett, Stanley, &c., for twenty times that sum." — Boston Evening Transcript.

THE SERVICE OF SORROW. By LUCRETIA P. HALE. 16mo, bevelled boards, red edges. $1.75.

This work, by the author of "Seven Stormy Sundays," "The Lord's Supper and its Observance," &c., is addressed to the various aspects of sorrow, recognizing the fact that bereavement is not its only occasion. It is published in a very attractive form, and is especially appropriate as a gift-book.

"Miss Hale has rendered a grateful service to the great family of the afflicted by her admirable 'Service of Sorrow.' We have long wished for just such a book as this to put into the hands of the sorrowing and bereaved, — a book full of comfort, consolation, and healing for those heart-wounds which nothing but religion can cure. When in affliction, most people want something other than sermons, however good they may be; something full of sentiment and sympathy; something which breaks out of a heart of faith, and goes direct to the struggling faith in the heart. Both in contents and arrangement, this offering of Miss Hale is admirable, and it will be a welcome gift to hundreds." — Liberal Christian.

This little book contains those short epigrammatic sentences into which Dr. Channing so often condensed his greatest thoughts.

"A collection of noble thoughts, that may well take its place by the side of the celebrated thoughts of Pascal, which have in them more of metaphysics, but less that touches the human heart. It makes a beautiful pocket volume." — Christian Examiner.

"We have long desired to see a book of this kind; and now, from a slight examination, believe that it is well done. It is a beautiful collection of beautiful thoughts, and must be a welcome possession, not only for all who agree with Dr. Channing in his peculiar religious opinions, but for all who value lofty sentiments worthily expressed, and who by the influence of such thoughts would be strengthened to duty, or raised to a higher sphere of contemplation." — Christian Register.

TRANSLATION OF THE HEBREW PROPHETS, with a new Introduction and additional Notes. By GEORGE R. NOYES, D.D., Hancock Professor of Hebrew, &c., and Dexter Lecturer in Harvard University. 2 vols. 12mo, 726 pp. $2.50.

The Introduction alone, making a book of 92 pages, and bound in flexible cloth covers, 50 cents.

"We cannot too highly recommend Noyes's Translation of the Hebrew Prophets, with lucid introductions and explanatory notes. It is the work of our most accomplished biblical scholar, and would prove of great value and interest to ministers, Sunday-school teachers, and intelligent laymen." — Christian Inquirer.

"The Introduction has been entirely rewritten, and now extends to nearly a hundred pages, embodying the latest results of European criticism as well as of Dr Noyes's own profound study of his subject. The notes, which are still printed in appendices, have been so much enlarged that they fill more than a hundred and forty closely printed pages; and the text has been carefully revised. Valuable as was the former edition, we have now a still more noble monument of Dr. Noyes's piety, learning, and unfaltering devotion to his early studies. And no one, whether clergyman or layman, who wishes to understand and enjoy the prophetical books of the Old Testament, should fail to profit by his labors." — Christian Register.

TRANSLATION OF THE BOOK OF PSALMS, AND OF THE PROVERBS. With Introduction and Notes, chiefly explanatory. Third edition. By GEORGE R. NOYES, D.D. 12mo, 421 pp. $1.25.

TRANSLATION OF JOB, ECCLESIASTES, AND THE CANTICLES. With Introductions and Notes, chiefly explanatory. By GEORGE R. NOYES, D.D. 12mo, 351 pp. $1.25.

These works have been thoroughly revised and greatly improved by the author, and the Association can now furnish the whole of Dr. Noyes's admirable Translations in four vols. of uniform size.

UNITARIANISM DEFINED. The Scripture Doctrine of the Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. By Rev. FREDERICK A. FARLEY, D.D. 12mo, 272 pp. 60 cts.

"A more clear, full, and candid statement of the question at issue between the Unitarian and Orthodox theories of Christianity it is impossible to make. His plea is that of a lawyer, — calm, careful, and unimpassioned; and there is not a word in it to give offence, even to those whose opinions it criticises. Such a work is sure to find an extensive and permanent circulation, and will take rank with the best standard treatises. We commend it to our readers as a book worth owning." — Taunton Republican.

UNITARIAN PRINCIPLES CONFIRMED BY TRINITARIAN TESTIMONIES. Being Selections from the Works of Eminent Theologians belonging to Orthodox Churches. With Introductory and Occasional Remarks. By JOHN WILSON. 12mo, 520 pp. $1.25.

This volume has more than five hundred pages; and, as it has quotations from over four hundred of the most approved theological writers in all ages, it comprises a whole library in one volume. Its object is to show what concessions have been made by Trinitarian writers to the essential truth of Unitarian views.

"By a vast deal of study, and under the guidance of a most conscientious accuracy and candor in selecting and verifying his quotations, the author has gathered from Christian writers, who are not Unitarians, admissions, avowals, and emphatic declarations, which fully authenticate the Christian character and the Christian sentiment and principles of those who profess Unitarianism." — Christian Examiner.

WATCHWORDS FOR LITTLE SOLDIERS; or, Stories on Bible Texts. By SARAH HAVEN FOSTER. 16mo, 184 pp. 80 cts. (See Prize Story-Books.)

WORD OF THE SPIRIT TO THE CHURCH. By Rev. CYRUS A. BARTOL, D.D. 16mo, 86 pp. 50 cts.

"We have read with delight, and we believe with entire assent, every word that is here written." — Religious Magazine.

"An earnest and forcible plea for the spirit as against formalism and dogmatism; for external simplicity, social loyalty, and personal fidelity, as the essential characteristics of the religious life." — Lowell News.

Monthly Journal of the American Unitarian Association.

THIS "Journal" is published at the beginning of every month, and enters upon its tenth volume with the present year. It is edited by the Secretary of the Unitarian Association, and is designed to be a medium of communication between the Association and the denomination that supports it; making known, by the reports of the meetings of the Executive Board, by reports from missionaries and the churches, and by such articles as the editor may prepare, the precise work in which the Association is engaged. Besides this, it is the aim of the "Journal" to afford tracts and articles which may serve to illustrate our form of Faith, or to promote in any way the best interests of our cause.

UNITARIAN TRACTS

Published by the American Unitarian Association.

THE preparation and distribution of Tracts, illustrating Unitarian doctrines, became, almost immediately after the organization of this Association, one of its most prominent objects; and a very considerable number, written by some of the most distinguished of the earlier ministers of the denomination, were then issued and widely scattered, Many of these earlier Tracts are as well adapted to the present time as to that for which they were written ; and they are still issued by the Association, and regarded among the most valuable of our series. Others have been added, however, from time to time, representing the fresh thought, and addressed to the special needs, of the present day. A list is given below of those which have been added during the last three years.

These Tracts are for gratuitous distribution, and will be furnished to any who may apply by letter, or otherwise, to the Rooms of the Association. Especially for missionary use, either in our older or newer communities, great importance is attached to their circulation, and it is believed that much may be done by means of them to remove prejudice, and to extend an acquaintance with the principles of our Faith.

Unitarianism Abroad.

Great Britain.

According to the last returns (January, 1868), the number of Unitarian places of worship in Great Britain and Ireland is 382. The number of ministers is 337, of whom 274 are settled, and 63 not settled, superannuated, or engaged in other occupations.

Institutions for the Education of Ministers.

Manchester New College, at University Hall, Gordon Square, London, is connected with University College and the University of London. It was founded at Manchester in 1786; in 1803 it was removed to York; in 1840 it was restored to Manchester; and in 1853 it was transferred to London. It is the chief seat of learning of the Unitarian body. It distinctly disclaims, however, all doctrinal or sectarian character. Young men upwards of sixteen, who are recommended by three Protestant Dissenting ministers, and from voluntary choice adopt the ministry as their profession, are admitted on passing a certain examination. The entire course extends over six years. Subjects taught: Greek, Latin, and Mathematics, or Natural Philosophy; Theology, Biblical and Historical; Christian Truths and Evidences, Mental, Moral, and Religious Philosophy; Hebrew Language and Literature. The session 1866–67 opened with twelve divinity students. Principal, the Rev. J. J. Tayler, B.A.; assisted by the Rev. J. Martineau and R. Martineau, Esq.

The Unitarian Home Missionary Board, Memorial Hall, Albert Square, was founded at Manchester in 1854. The object of this institution is to train men, filled with the spirit of practical religion, as missionaries, to spread the religion of Christ. The course of study extends over three years, under the care of the Rev. J. R. Beard, D.D. (Principal), Rev. William Gaskell, M.A. (Literary Tutor), Revs. John Wright, B.A., and Brooke Herford (Missionary Tutors). A weekly allowance is made to students, and they are sent out on Sundays to preach in neighboring pulpits.

Presbyterian College, Carmarthen. — Educates Independent and Unitarian ministers. Course four years. The students officiate in the Welch and other congregations as supplies.

University of Glasgow. — Founded 1450. Open to all who pass an examination in Latin and Greek, without test or creed.

Queen's College, Belfast. — Is unsectarian, and has no theological course; but Unitarian students graduate there, receiving their theological education from Professors Rev. J. Orr and Rev. J. Scott Porter.

Extracts.

Every wise man will allow others the same liberty of thinking which he desires they should allow him; and will no more insist on their embracing his opinions than he would have them insist on his embracing theirs. He bears with those who differ from him, and only asks him with whom he desires to unite in love that single question, "Is thine heart right, as my heart is with thy heart?" No man can choose for, or prescribe to, another. But every man must follow the dictates of his own conscience, in simplicity and godly sincerity. — John Wesley.

Progress in Theology a Duty. — To be like our fathers is not to do what they did, but as they did; not to wear their clothes, but to be moved by their spirit. They searched the Scriptures and tried to frame their creeds, and guide their lives by the light they found therein. But we have been searching the Scriptures for two hundred years more, and with such assistance as they could not command. Bible literature has been wonderfully improved and increased since their time. Geography, philology, history, travel, criticism, have all made the sacred text a focus of their light. It would be strange if all this illumination had brought out no new meaning, if our fathers saw as much in their darkness as we in our light — Gail Hamilton.

A man may be orthodox in every point; he may not only espouse right opinions, but zealously defend them against all opposers; he may think justly concerning the incarnation of our Lord, concerning the ever-blessed Trinity, and every other doctrine contained in the oracles of God; he may assent to all the three Creeds, — that called Apostles', the Nicene, and the Athanasian, — and yet it is possible he may have no religion at all, no more than a Jew, Turk, or Pagan. — South.

We must not frown upon real piety or truth, because they do not appear in our own uniform. — Jacob Abbot.

Let not bigotry or party zeal be so much as once named amongst you. Our Lord was a stranger to it. Whosoever did the will of his Father, the same was his brother, his sister, his mother. Wherever he saw the marks of true faith, though in a centurion or Syrophenician, who were aliens to the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenant of promise, how did he publish and commend it! . . . Why should not the children of God, notwithstanding their little differences, unite in one common interest against spiritual wickedness in high places? — George Whitfield.

THE CHRISTIAN EXAMINER.

New Series.

Edited by Rev. H. W. BELLOWS, D.D., New York.

Corresponding Editor, Rev. J. H. ALLEN, Cambridge, Mass.

PROSPECTUS.

With the year 1866, The Christian Examiner began a new series, under a new Editorial direction, being published in New York; and now hopes to preserve and increase whatever of scholarly and literary excellence has commended its past career.

The Christian Examiner desires to represent the breadth of that Christian Liberty of Thought and Utterance which is now happily accepted as the established duty and policy of the Unitarian Denomination. It will afford impartial opportunity for intelligent, serious, and reverential discussion of questions at issue in the different schools of thought in our own Body; adopting, in justice to all and for the protection of all, the general usage of publishing the names of its Contributors attached to their Articles.

We invite contributions from all quarters, reserving those absolute rights of selection, rejection, and revision, which we hold essential to the conduct of every public Journal.

Its aim will be to discuss all such matters as may come before it, in a spirit both independent and impartial; to address the educated intelligence of the Nation from the point of view of Liberal Christianity and enlightened Conscience; and to devote the best ability at its command to the cause of pure Religion, free Government, Civilization, and Social Justice.

HENRY W. BELLOWS. J. H. ALLEN. W. R. ALGER.

Terms. — The Christian Examiner is published once in two months, beginning with January of each year, at five dollars per annum, payable in advance. Single numbers, one dollar each.

The Examiner will be sent by mail, to any part of the United States, free of postage, on the remittance of a year's subscription strictly in advance; that is, on or before the issue of the number with which a subscription begins, or at the time of subscribing.

With the adoption of a Cash Dividend System, and important changes and additions to our Tables of Premiums, still greater advancement is looked for in the year upon which we have now entered.

SUICIDE DOES NOT CAUSE A FORFEITURE OF INSURANCE, that being considered an evidence of insanity, and insanity the result of disease. This is the only American Company which adopts this rule.

Parties who are solicited to insure in other Companies, before completing arrangements, are especially desired to call on the undersigned, who will afford every facility in examination of official and other Reports, by which the standing and relative condition of the various Companies can be absolutely ascertained.

VALUABLE AND ATTRACTIVE BOOKS.

JAMES RUSSELL LOWELL. UNDER THE WILLOWS, and Other Poems. 16mo. Cloth, $2.00; half calf, $3.50; morocco, $5.00.

"The volume gives a good impression, not only of the force and subtlety of Lowell's genius, but of its growth. In richness of imagery, melody of verse, delicacy, depth and vigor of thought, the collection is worthy the author's fame." — Boston Transcript.

EDWARD EVERETT HALE. IF, YES, AND PERHAPS. 16mo. $1.50.

"Of all short-story writers in America, Mr. Hale is probably the most successful. His 'Man without a Country' is almost without a parallel. On the whole, this book contains the best collection of short stories which has been issued from the American press for many a day." — Independent.

WASHINGTON GLADDEN. PLAIN THOUGHTS ON THE ART OF LIVING. 16mo. $1.50.

"There is more solid, practical advice to young men and women in this little volume than most boys and girls ever receive from parents, teachers, and preachers. . . . Parents could not confer a greater benefit on their children than by imbuing their minds and hearts with the noble and useful sentiments expressed in this work." — Catholic Telegraph.

LUCY LARCOM. POEMS. 16mo. $1.50.

"The religious sentiment of New England never had a more winning and graceful interpreter, for she has succeeded in reconciling Puritanism with the liberal yet reverent spirit of modern inquiry. Her ballads have the true flavor and feeling of the breezy New-England seacoast." — J. G. Whittier.

E. STUART PHELPS. THE GATES AJAR. 16mo. $1.50.

"It would be difficult for the great and simple truths of Christianity to be made more living and attractive than in the expression that they receive in this book. . . . The story is completely subordinated to the development of the author's religious opinions, but her dramatic power is none the less remarkable." — New York Evening Post.

HENRY W. LONGFELLOW. THE NEW-ENGLAND TRAGEDIES. 16mo. Cloth, $1.50; half calf, $3.00; morocco, $4.50.

"The book consists of two simple but exquisitely perfect pictures out of New-England history. The art of the poet makes the magistrate, the minister, the martyr, and other characters of the time, to live before us." — Chicago Tribune.

JOHN G. WHITTIER. AMONG THE HILLS, and Other Poems. 16mo. With three illustrations. Cloth, $1.50; antique morocco, $4.50.

"'Among the Hills' is one of the sweetest, tenderest, and most deliciously pure and high-toned of Whittier's poetic productions. It is of the beautiful New-England country, seen through the poet's pure eyes; and the story is as deliciously charming as the description of the country found in the text, or the Prelude." — Providence Press.

PROSE WORKS. 2 vols. 16mo. Fine Portrait. $5.00.

"These volumes embrace 'Margaret Smith's Diary,' one of the truest pictures of early New-England life, his graphic sketches of the reformers of the past, and many of the excellent articles contributed to the 'Washington National Era' some years ago. If there are any who know Whittier only as a poet, they will find in these volumes that he is one of the purest and most charming writers of prose." — Springfield Republican.

NATHANIEL HAWTHORNE. PASSAGES FROM HIS AMERICAN NOTE-BOOKS. 2 vols. 16mo. Cloth, $4.00; half calf, $7.50.

"They have the same inimitable felicity of expression which gives such fascination to every production of his pen; but their interest is chiefly derived from the fidelity with which they reveal the qualities of a rare and peculiar nature. His writings will be read with a keener zest after this personal introduction to their author." — N. Y. Tribune.

GEORGE ELIOT. THE SPANISH GYPSY. 16mo. $1.50.

"'The Spanish Gypsy' places the author among the most prominent names of this poetic generation. In largeness of view, depth and fertility of thought, range of knowledge, force of characterization, and purity of style, this poem lifts George Eliot above even Mrs. Browning; for even in 'Aurora Leigh' there is nothing which, in respect to impassioned imagination, is equal to the last two books of the 'Spanish Gypsy.'" — Boston Transcript.

ROBERT BROWNING. THE RING AND THE BOOK. Vol. I. 16mo. $2.00.

"Whilst he stands among the foremost of living poets, his wealth of thought, his bold and strong imagination, his quaint fancy and subtle humor, are clothed in a rich diction, so involved, and at times so obscure, that to read him is working a mine to obtain treasures such as he alone has to bestow, and that fully reward the toil, however great." — Boston Transcript.

LOUIS AGASSIZ. A JOURNEY IN BRAZIL. Fourth Edition. 8vo. Illustrated. Cloth, $5.00; half calf, $8.00.

"It is very interesting throughout, — nay, charming; and is written in so agreeable a style that neither the education nor the insight of a savant is necessary to enjoy the whole of it." — Boston Advertiser.
